

The Initial Attack Fire Boss (IC Type 5)

Preparing the candidates to respond to a smoke report, size up the fire scenario and implement a plan of attack.

- Cost per Delegate: R1,900-00 + VAT per delegate
- Course Duration: Lunch will be included
- Course Dates: 17 - 19 May 2017 (3 days)
- Location & Venue: LEFPA Boardroom, FGK Capital Building, Canary Walk Business Park, 8 Bester street, Nelspruit
- Availability: Maximum 15 seats are available and a 50% deposit will secure your booking.

- Course Content
- Fire Boss responsibilities
 - Standard operating Procedures
 - Fire Safety
 - Parts of a Fire
 - Fire behaviour
 - Communication Plans
 - Pre suppression Planning
 - En route to a Fire
 - Arriving at the Fire
 - Size up fires
 - Develop the Incident action plan
 - Fire attack strategies
 - Working with aircraft
 - Mopping up
 - Practical's

Course duration 3 days

Early detection, quick response in an overkill mode results in minimum damage or loss.

The Fire Boss would normally attain the required knowledge, skills and attitudes through completion of a minimum of Fire Boss II training, combined with several years of fire suppression and pre-suppression experience.

Contact Details:
Corné Martyn: Administrator
Mobile: 082 566 2728
Office: 013 752 6419
Email: admin@lefpa.co.za

Presented by:
Ben Potgieter

